
GEOGRAPHY OF HOPE

PRACTICING THE WILD

POINT REYES STATION, CALIFORNIA

Igniting the Green Fire—
Finding Hope in Aldo Leopold's Land Ethic

March 15, 16 & 17, 2013

Join authors, naturalists, and environmental leaders for the first West Coast gathering of the world's foremost Aldo Leopold experts

Three days of spirited conversations and presentations examining Leopold's legacy as a foundation for hope and for future conservation ideas in working landscapes, wilderness areas, forests, farms, and ranches. Naturalist-led field trips to Point Reyes National Seashore, and additional field trips to privately owned ranches in West Marin to learn about the production of grass-fed beef and handcrafted goat cheese.

PLUS: Special screening of the Emmy Award-winning film Green Fire: Aldo Leopold and a Land Ethic for our Time

Details and registration: ptreyesbooks.com
Point Reyes Station, California

Co-sponsored

POINT REYES BOOKS

THE ALDO LEOPOLD FOUNDATION

HUMANS & NATURE

FOREST SERVICE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE